Technical Information

- Protests: Protests relating to matters that develop during the conduct of the meet shall be made at once and no later than 30 minutes after the final results have been officially posted. Such protests shall be directed in writing to the meet referee. Protest forms included in the team packet.
- Qualifying: From the Northern California and Southern California Regional Championship meets, a combined total of twenty-four (24) men's teams and twenty-four (24) women's teams will be permitted to advance into the CCCAA State Championship.

16 Teams from the South and 8 teams from the North will make up the 24 teams.

From the Northern California and Southern California Regional Championship meets, thirty (30) men's individual qualifiers and thirty (30) women's individual qualifiers will advance to the CCCAA State Championship. Individual qualifiers are not members of a State Championship qualifying team and will advance based on their finishing place at their respective Regional Championship meets. Individual qualifiers may only advance into the State Championship so long as they finish within the top 50-percent of all finishers within their Regional Championship.
